Right to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting

Under Article 406¹ § 1 of the CCC, the right to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company Only persons who are shareholders of the Company as at the date of registration of participation in the Ordinary General Meeting, i.e. on 13 June 2022 (date of registration).

In order to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting, a shareholder entitled to the registered bearer shares should require the issuing of an entitlement certificate to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting TORPOL S.A. from the entity maintaining the securities account, but not earlier than the notice convening the Ordinary General Meeting, and not later than the first business day after the registration date of the participation in the Ordinary General Meeting, i.e., not later than 14 June 2022. Certificates of the right to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting will be the basis for drawing up lists submitted to the entity maintaining the securities deposit in accordance with the regulations of financial instruments trading.

Shareholders are recommended to collect the issued certificate of attendance entitlement mentioned hereinabove, and bring this certificate to the session of the Ordinary General Meeting with themselves.

Day of registration for participation in the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

The date of registration of participation in the Ordinary General Meeting is 13 June 2022.

Participation in the Ordinary General Meeting through a proxy

A shareholder may participate in the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise their voting rights in person or by proxy. Proxy may exercise all rights of the shareholder at the General Meeting, unless otherwise stated in the power of attorney. A proxy may grant further proxies if it stated in the original power of attorney. A proxy may represent more than one shareholder and vote differently for each shareholder.

A shareholder who is not a natural person may participate in the Ordinary General Meeting and exercise their voting rights by a person authorized to make declarations of will on their behalf or by proxy. Representatives of legal entities must present current certified copies, i.e. not older than 30 days from the date of the Ordinary General Meeting, with the relevant registers specifying the persons authorized to represent these entities, optionally provided with a power of attorney or a continuous chain of powers of attorney. These documents should be presented when preparing the attendance list or sent electronically to the day preceding the date of the Ordinary General Meeting to the address ri@torpol.pl. The person granting power of attorney on behalf of the shareholder not being a natural person should appear in the current certified copy from the shareholder's register.

A Member of the Management Board and an employee of the Company may be proxies of the shareholders at the Ordinary General Meeting. If a proxy at the Ordinary General Meeting is a member of the Management Board, Supervisory Board member, employee or member of the body or an employee of a subsidiary of the Company, the power of attorney may authorize to represent at only one general meeting. The proxy must disclose the circumstances indicating the existence or possibility of a conflict of interest. Giving further proxies in this instance is excluded. Such proxy shall vote in accordance with the instructions given by the shareholder.

A shareholder whose shares are registered on the collective account may appoint separate proxies to exercise the rights attached to shares held in these accounts. Shareholders whose shares are registered in more than one securities account may appoint separate proxies to exercise the rights attached to the shares on each of the accounts.

The proxy shall be null and void unless made in writing and attached to the minutes of the Ordinary General Meeting or granted in electronic form.

Forms for exercising voting rights by proxy are available on the Company's website at www.torpol.pl in the Investor Relations / Corporate Governance / Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company informs that the use of the above mentioned form shall not be mandatory.

A shareholder is required to send information to the Company on granting a power of attorney in an electronic form to the e-mail address ri@torpol.pl no later than 28 June 2022, until 12.00 making every effort to ensure effective verification of the power of attorney. Electronic power of attorney should be formulated in a separate document signed by a duly shareholder or person/persons authorized to represent the shareholder, sent in the form of a scanned document and attached in PDF format to the aforementioned e-mail address. Information about the authorization should include details of the proxy and the principal (first name, last name, phone and e-mail addresses of those persons). Granting power of attorney in electronic form does not require a secure electronic signature verified by a valid qualified certificate. Electronic submission of the aforementioned documents does not relieve the proxy from the obligation to present the identification documents at the preparation of the list of presence of persons entitled to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting of TORPOL S.A.

The Company will take appropriate action to identify the shareholder and the proxy in order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in an electronic form. Verification may include, in particular, a return questions electronically or by telephone to the shareholder or proxy to confirm the power of attorney and its scope. In case of doubt, the Company may take further steps to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in electronic form and identification of the shareholder and the proxy. The Company reserves the failure to reply to the questions asked during the verification will be treated as a failure to verify the power of attorney and will constitute grounds for refusing to allow the proxy to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting.

In the case of emerging doubts about the legitimacy of a person to act on behalf of the shareholder, the Board reserves the right to request the presentation of original documents showing the empowerment of a person to act on the behalf of the shareholder during the preparation of the attendance list.

Documents that have not been drawn up in Polish should be translated into Polish by a sworn translator.

The rules concerning the filing of proxy and the identification of proxy and the principal shall apply to the Company until a notice of revocation of proxy.

The list of shareholders

The list of shareholders entitled to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting will be available at the registered office of the Company at 61-119 Poznań, ul. Św. Michała 43 for three days prior to the date of the Ordinary General Meeting, i.e., between 24 and 27-28 June 2022, from 09:00 to 15:30.

2. The right of shareholders to submit draft resolutions

A shareholder or shareholders of the Company representing at least one twentieth of the share capital may, prior to Ordinary General Meeting, submit draft resolutions on issues included in the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting or to be placed on the agenda. The drafts may be submitted in writing to the Company's registered office at ul. Św. Michała 43, 61-119 Poznań, or - in the case of electronic form - sent to the Company by e-mail: ri@torpol.pl

A shareholder or shareholders submitting draft resolutions must provide, along with the request, documents proving their identity and eligibility to request those certain matters on the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting, in particular:

- 1) a certificate of deposit or a certificate of eligibility to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company, issued by the entity managing the securities account in accordance with the regulations on the Financial Instruments Trading, proving that the recipient is a shareholder of the Company and has the appropriate number of shares at the date of submitting the request, and
- 2) if the shareholder is a natural person - a copy of the identity card, passport or other identity document,
- 3) if the shareholder is not a natural person - a copy of the current certified copy of the relevant register or another document confirming the right to represent the shareholder.

The obligation to attach the documents mentioned hereinabove relates to shareholders who submit a request both in written and electronic forms. The documents should be attached in the form relevant for the request (a paper document or its copy, or scan and conversion to PDF). The Company may take the necessary steps to identify the shareholder or shareholders and the validity of the documents submitted.

The Management Board shall promptly announce the draft resolutions submitted at the request of a shareholder or shareholders. The announcement of proposals shall be published in a current report via the Electronic Information Transfer System and placed on the Company's website www.torpol.pl.

In addition, each shareholder entitled to attend the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders may, during the General Meeting, submit draft resolutions on matters included in the agenda.

3. Shareholder's right to ask questions about issues included in the agenda of the general meeting of the shareholders

Shareholders have the right to ask questions concerning the issues placed on the agenda of the General Meeting. Pursuant to Article 428 of the Commercial Companies Code, the Management Board is obliged to provide a shareholder upon request with information concerning the company if this is justified for the assessment of the matter included in the agenda, whereas the Management Board refuses to provide information if this could harm the company, its related company or subsidiary, in particular by revealing technical, trade or organizational secrets of the company, and a Member of the Management Board may refuse to provide information if the provision of such information could constitute grounds for penal, civil or administrative liability. At the same time, an answer shall be deemed given if the relevant information is available on the company's website in the space reserved for questions asked by shareholders and answers given to them. Furthermore, if a shareholder requests information concerning the company during the general meeting, the Management Board may provide information in writing outside the general meeting if there are important reasons for doing so. The Management Board is obliged to provide information no later than within two weeks from the date of making the request during the general meeting, whereas if a shareholder makes a request for information concerning the company outside the general meeting, the Management Board may provide the shareholder with information in writing, taking into account the above-mentioned limitations (i.e. the Management Board refuses to provide information if it could be detrimental to the company, a company associated with it or a dependent company or cooperative, in particular by disclosing technical, trade or organizational secrets of the companies).

4. The use of electronic means of communication

The Statute and Bylaws of the General Meeting of the Company do not provide for:

- the opportunity to participate in the General Meeting by means of electronic communication,
- the possibility of speaking at the General Meeting by means of electronic communication,
- possibility of voting by correspondence or by electronic means of communication.

The Management Board of the Company has not decided to make it possible to participate in the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the abovementioned manner, therefore the forms of participation mentioned above will not be possible at the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company.

5. Access to documentation

The complete text of the documentation to be presented to the Ordinary General Meeting together with draft resolutions shall be made available in the Company's registered office at ul. Św. Michała 43, 61-119 Poznań, and placed on the Company's website www.torpol.pl, in the Investor Relations/Corporate Governance/Annual General Meeting of Shareholders from the date of convening the Ordinary General Meeting of the Company.

Comments of the Management Board, or the Supervisory Board of TORPOL S.A. concerning the matters included in the agenda of the Ordinary General Meeting, or the matters to be placed on the agenda, prior to the date of their holding, will be available on the Company's website immediately after their preparation.

Information and documents relating to the Ordinary General Meeting shall be available on the website of www.torpol.pl in the Investor Relations/Corporate Governance/Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.
